

3 Great Interviews On Preparedness

3 Great MUST listen to interviews on Preparedness with James Wesley Rawles, Joe Nobody and Jim Marrs on Natural News TV

James Wesley Rawles is a former US Army intelligence officer who, for the last two decades, has authored bestselling books and top blogs on preparedness. This man is highly intelligent and extremely well informed. Here, he talks with Alex Jones about what happens in a "grid down" situation and why 50% of the population in U.S. cities will probably not make it out alive. This was just recorded maybe 10 days ago with James Wesley Rawles interviewed on Alex Jones Show (InfoWars.com), on survival, gun confiscation and more. Joe Nobody is the featured bonus guest in my upcoming May 8th LIVE seminar. I have pre-recorded a bonus interview with him that will be unveiled on May 8th. Here, you can listen to the first 13 minutes of the discussion, which centers around the U.S. government's recent purchase of 450 million rounds of hollow point ammo to be used domestically, apparently against the American people. The full interview will be broadcast on May 8th to the participants of Health Rangers LIVE event, but you can get the first 13 minutes of the Interview with Joe Nobody on preparedness, survival, US govt. buying ammo and more. Jim Marrs is one of the best-informed investigative journalists in the country. I interviewed him a few months ago and didn't get it published until now, but this interview is absolutely packed with valuable knowledge about the economic collapse that's coming. Interview with Jim Marrs, author, journalist, investigator, Jan 2012 Uploaded 4/23/2012 12:26:14 PM by HealthRanger where, Jim reveals the truth about what he calls "Zombie banks." @
